THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING IS TODAY

After Divine Liturgy. Please see Fr. Nikolay if you are interested in being elected as a Parish Council Member, Building Committee Member, Diocesan Assembly Lay Representative or Yearly Auditor. If you didn't sign & turn in your pledge form (ANNUAL COMMITMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH FOR 2013) please do so today. This is not just about money. It is by the means of the pledge form that we are able to assess parish membership figures to report to the DOS and the OCA and to determine if there are enough parishioners present at the Annual Parish Meeting for a quorum (50%) and to determine who is eligible to vote (declared parish members only.) IF YOU ARE NOT SURE whether you have returned your 2013 Commitment Form, there is a list on the Bulletin Board. If you consider yourself a member of our parish, but you don't see your name on the list, please fill out and return the Annual Commitment Form (available on the table in the back of the Church). Thank you.

Venerable Euthymius the Great

Welcome Visitors! Christ is in Our Midst!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found on the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card, also on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Holy Water Font. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and coffee, so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion. *

We hope you will visit us again very soon. *

Please send Prayer Corner names and updates along with bulletin announcements to Daniel Schulte at: drschulte@hughes.net or call 505-495-9200.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & NOTICES

- LOVE CARTONS PROJECT ON FEBRUARY 10, 2013: Around Valentine's Day we send hygiene items that have been collected all year to St. Martin's Hospitality Center. We collect and send "travel" size items such as shampoo, soap, hair conditioner & deodorant. Also, we have been advised that they can use regular sized toothpaste, conditioner, shampoo, conditioner, soap and shaving cream besides the individual sizes since they can portion them out. They can even slice up the soap. Also, St. Anna's Sisterhood makes a financial donation. A list of what has been currently donated is on the bulletin board at church. Donations to date are: Shampoo 108 items; Conditioner 122; Lotion 69; Soap 78; Shower/Bath Gel 2; Toothpaste 1; Razors 0
- IT IS THE TRADITION OF THE ORTHODOX CHURCH for the Priest to bless the homes of all parishioners with holy water between The Feast of Theophany and the beginning of Great Lent. Please contact Fr. Nikolay to schedule the blessing of your home.
- FEBRUARY CALENDAR ITEMS are needed by this Wednesday, January 23rd. Please contact Diane Prokipchak at: dianepnm@q.com or call: (505) 792-4507.
- IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE to a charitable fund for Fr. George's retirement, all you need do is write a check to ASONA and write "Father George's retirement fund" on the "for" line and it will be passed through to Fr George. Thank you.

Venerable Euthymius the Great

COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

The Of noble and distinguished parents, Euthymius was born in the Armenian town of Melitene near the Euphrates river about the year 377 A.D. He was the only child, a son, born in answer to the prayer of his mother Dionisiya, who had a heavenly vision regarding the birth of Euthymius. From his youth, he lived a life of asceticism, at first in the proximity of his town [Melitene] but then, after he visited Jerusalem at age twenty-nine, in the desert between Jerusalem and Jericho called Pharan. He filled his days and nights with prayer, internal thoughts about God, contemplation and physical exertion. Around him many disciples gathered some of whom are glorious saints, such as Cyriac the Hermit, St. Sabas the Sanctified, Theotictus and others. By God's gift, Euthymius was a great miracle worker; he expelled demons, healed the gravely ill, brought water to the desert, multiplied bread and prophesied. He taught monks the love of labor saying, "If you eat bread, not of your own labor, know that you are eating of someone else's labor." When some of the younger monks wanted to fast more than others, he forbade them to do so and commanded them to come to the communal table so that they would not become prideful as a result of their excessive fasting. He also said that it was not good for a monk to move from place to place, for he said, "A tree frequently transplanted does not bear fruit. Whoever desires to do good, can do it from the place where he is." About love, he said, "What salt is to bread, love is to other virtues." He died in the year 473 A.D.
