Rick Staats is leading an in-depth Bible study in preparation for the Nativity of our Lord. He is going through the Christmas stories in Matthew and Luke, as well as a look at the non-canonical books which helped define our icons and feasts of the Nativity of the Theotokos and her Entrance into the Holies. The Bible Study takes place on Thursday evenings from 7:00pm to 8:30pm in the Church

If you have questions or for more information please see Rick.

Venerable Pelagia the Penitent

WELCOME VISITORS! CHRIST IS IN OUR MIDST!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found next to the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Book Store Table. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and the meal so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion.

* We hope you will visit us again very soon. *

PLEASE SIGN UP TO HELP MAKE SPANIKOPITA & BAKLAVA FOR THE SISTERHOOD BAKE SALE. There is a sign up sheet for Spanikopita and Baklava making sessions on the Literature Table. We hope we can count on those who helped last year. We hope to also have some new men and women join us in the fun. Children are encouraged to participate if they are able to follow directions while working with an adult. We will make spanikopita at 10:00am on Friday, October 20th and on Friday, October 24th at 6:00pm. We're making baklava on Friday, November 27th at 6:00pm. We work at the metal tables in the church kitchen. Sessions generally last about 2 hours. We can't do it without you!

IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE to a charitable fund for Matushka Ingrid all you need do is write a check to ASONA and write "Matushka Ingrid" on the "for" line and it will be passed through to her. Thank you.

THE VENERABLE PELAGIA

Pelagia was a repentant sinner. She was born to pagan parents in Antioch, and was endowed by God with great physical beauty. Pelagia used her beauty to the destruction of her own soul and those of others. She became very wealthy as a result of her prostitution. Once, while walking past the Church of the Holy Martyr Julian, in which Bishop Nonnus was preaching, she stopped in and heard a sermon on the Dread Judgment and the punishment of sinners. Those words so shook her and changed her that she immediately felt revulsion for herself, acquired true fear of God, repented of all her sins and fell down before St Nonnus with the plea that he baptize her: But Pelagia was not satisfied with baptism alone. She was keenly aware of the multitude of her sins and, pricked by her conscience, decided on a great ascetic labor. She left her enormous, sinfully gained wealth to the poor, and secretly went to Jerusalem as the monk Pelagius. There, she shut herself up in a cell on the Mount of Olives, and began the difficult asceticism of fasting, prayer and all-night vigils. After three years, St Nonnus's deacon, James, visited her and found her still alive, but when he visited her again several days later, he found that she had reposed, and he honorably buried her body.
