Saint Nicephorus, Confessor & Patriarch Of Constantinople

COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

Nicephorus was a nobleman of Constantinople. His father Theodore, a high-ranking official of the imperial court, was wealthy and pious. Nicephorus served at the court for several years in the same profession as his father. Seeing all the vanity of the world, he withdrew to the shores of the Bosphorus and founded a monastery. The monastery was quickly filled with monks and he governed it but was not willing to receive the monastic tonsure under the pretext that he was not worthy, even though, in all things he served as a model to all. Before that, he participated in the Seventh Ecumenical Council [Nicaea, 783 A.D.] as a layman at the wishes of the emperor and the patriarch. The Council benefited greatly by his superior knowledge of Sacred Scripture. When Patriarch Tarasius died, Nicephorus was elected patriarch against his will. He was enthroned as patriarch in the Church of the Divine Wisdom of God [Hagia Sophia]. When Leo the Armenian was crowned, the patriarch sent him a book of the Orthodox Confession of Faith to sign (according to the custom of all Byzantine emperors which was considered an oath that they will uphold and defend the True Faith). The emperor did not sign it but rather postponed it until after the coronation. When the patriarch crowned him, Leo refused to sign the book and quickly proved himself to be a heretic; an iconoclast. The patriarch attempted to advise him and to restore him to the True Faith, but in vain. The emperor forcibly banished Nicephorus into exile to the island of Proconnesus where he remained for thirteen years enduring every kind of misery and privation and entered eternity in the year 827 A.D. As patriarch he governed the Church of Christ for nine years.

5th Sunday of Pascha June 2nd 2013

Sunday of the Samaritan Woman

Christ is in Risen! Indeed He is Risen!

We are honored you are visiting today. * Liturgy Books may be found on the Candle Table at the back of the church. * We invite you to fill out a Visitor's Card, also on the Candle Table & place it in one of the Collection Baskets there. * We do not take up a Collection during our services but rather ask you to place donations in one of the baskets on the Candle Table or next to the Holy Water Font. * While only Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion, everyone is welcome to come forward at the end of Liturgy to receive a blessing from our priest and to take the blessed bread. * It is the Orthodox practice to stand during services as a sign of reverence for the Lord but if you need to sit, please do so. Use of chairs is shared. If you are able, we particularly try to stand during the processions with the Gospel and the Gifts, during the Readings, the Creed, during the preparation of the Holy Eucharist, the Lord's Prayer and reception of Communion. * We invite you to stay after the Thanksgiving Prayers for fellowship and coffee, so that we may greet you personally, and to answer any questions you may have about our faith, our parish or today's service. * Please help yourself to the brochures and information on the east side counter. * All children ages three through twelve are encouraged to attend our Sunday School after Holy Communion. * We hope you will visit us again very soon. *

Please send Prayer Corner names and updates along with bulletin announcements to Daniel Schulte at: drschulte@hughes.net or call 505-495-9200.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & NOTICES

- YOU MADE THE TEAM Great to Hear. We could really use another team for our coffee hour. We need one more team of 2 or more people to help with the coffee hour before and after church. See Monica or Carolyn Reinicke for details. It would not be every Sunday for anybody, if we had another team.
- CHOIR NEWS: In July, the Choir will accept new members from the parish. For those pondering whether the choir ministry is for you, please note that as a ministry, being a member of the choir takes a regular weekly level of commitment. You do not have to be able to read music but it is very helpful. Those who cannot read music will be expected to do some outside work to improve their skills. You do have to be able to match pitch and sing in key. Voices will be tested. To join the choir, you need to commit to arriving early to services so that you are on the cliros at least 5 minutes before a service begins, attending choir rehearsals on Saturday evenings from 5:00 to 6:00pm and then Great Vespers which follows and regularly attending Sunday Divine Liturgy. Prayerfully consider if this might be what God is calling you to do for His church and if interested please talk to choir director Diane Prokipchak by mid-June (792-4507).
- PROSOPON SCHOOL ICON PAINTING CLASS, sponsored by the St. Dimitri Orthodox Mission of Los Alamos, is scheduled June 24-29 in Santa Fe. Fr. Mefodii will again teach the class. Registration forms and more information are available on the Literature Table. Total cost is $585<sup>00</sup> with half payment required with completed registration form by June 14.
- IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE to a charitable fund for Fr. George's funeral and any unpaid family expenses, all you need do is write a check to ASONA and write "Father George's expenses" on the "for" line and it will be passed through to Matushka Ingrid. Thank you.

During The Paschal Season, In Celebration

We do not kneel or prostrate. We kneel for the first time again on Pentecost during the kneeling prayers.

Each service begins with the clergy singing CHRIST IS RISEN by themselves with the people joining after the third time.

Also, during the Paschal Season instead of 'Hello!' or 'Christ is in our midst!,' we greet each other with:

CHRIST IS RISEN! and respond: INDEED HE IS RISEN!
