The Apostle Titus

ALSO COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

Titus was one of the Seventy [Apostles]. He was born in Crete and educated in Greek philosophy and poetry. Following a dream, he began reading the Prophet Isaiah and doubted all the wisdom of the Hellenes. Hearing about Christ the Lord, Titus traveled to Jerusalem with other Cretans and personally heard the words of the Savior and witnessed His mighty works. His young heart completely adhered to Christ. Later, he was baptized by the Apostle Paul whom he served as a son to a father in the work of evangelization. Titus was present at the suffering and death of Paul in Rome and honorably buried the body of his teacher and spiritual father. After that, Titus returned to Crete where, with great success, he baptized the pagans and prudently governed the Church of God until old age. Titus entered into rest at the age of ninety-four.

The Holy Apostle Bartholomew

COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

Today commemorates the translation of the relics of S^t Bartholomew, although his main feast is celebrated on June 11. When this great apostle was crucified in Albanopolis [Derbend] in Armenia, Christians removed his body and honorably buried it in a lead sarcophagus. When numerous miracles occurred over the grave of the apostle, especially healings of the sick, because of which the number of Christians increased, the pagans took the sarcophagus containing the relics of Bartholomew and tossed it into the sea. However, by God's providence, the sarcophagus did not sink but was carried by the current and floated to the island of Lipara. By revelation Agathon, the Bishop of Lipara, learned of the approaching relics of the holy Apostle Bartholomew and with the clergy and people, came to the shore to receive the sarcophagus with great joy. Many healings of the sick occurred from the relics of the holy apostle. The relics were placed in the church of S^t Bartholomew and there they reposed until translated to Benevento. Thus, the Lord glorified His apostle by miracles both during his life and after his death.
