The Holy Hieromartyr Ignatius

ALSO COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

The principal feast of St Ignatius is celebrated in winter, on December 20. On this date we commemorate the translation of his relics from Rome, where he suffered martyrdom, to Antioch, where he had earlier been bishop. When St Ignatius was summoned to Rome to account for his faith before Emperor Trajan, he was accompanied on this long journey by several citizens from Antioch, who were motivated in this by a great love toward their wonderful archpastor. Since he would never deny his faith in Christ, this saint of God, who abhorred all the adulation and promises of Emperor Trajan, was condemned to death and thrown to wild beasts in the Circus Maximus. The wild beasts tore him apart, and he surrendered his soul to God. His companions then gathered his exposed bones, took them to Antioch, and honorably buried them. When the Persians captured Antioch in the sixth century, the relics of St Ignatius were again translated from Antioch to Rome.

Join us Tuesdays, (except for this Tuesday, January 31st.) at 10:30am after the recitation of the Jesus Prayer.

IT IS THE TRADITION OF THE ORTHODOX CHURCH For the Priest to bless the homes of parishioners with holy water between The Feast of Theophany and the beginning of Great Lent. Please contact Fr Nikolay to schedule the blessing of your home.

Zacchaeus Sunday

COMMEMORATED THIS DAY

The paschal season of the Church is preceded by the season of Great Lent, which is also preceded by its own liturgical preparation. The first sign of the approach of Great Lent comes five Sundays before its beginning. On this Sunday the Gospel reading is about Zacchaeus the tax-collector. It tells how Christ brought salvation to the sinful man, and how his life was changed simply because he "sought to see who Jesus was" (Luke 19:3). The desire and effort to see Jesus begins the entire movement through Lent towards Pascha. It is the first movement of salvation.
